Segment Information

1. Overview of Reporting Segments

The Group's reporting segments are those of the constituent units of the Group for which separate financial information is available, and are subject to periodic review by the Board of Directors and the Management Committee, which deliberates on important matters, in order to determine the allocation of management resources and evaluate business performance.

The Group manufactures and sells stainless steel wires and metal fibers, which are mainly in the wire drawing and processing business, and the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries are in charge of domestic and overseas products, and formulate comprehensive strategies for each region and develop business activities for the products it handles.

Therefore, the Group consists of regional segments based on manufacturing and sales, with three reporting segments: Japan, Thailand, and China and South Korea.

2. Method of calculating the amount of sales, profits or losses, assets and other items for each reporting segment

The method of accounting for the reported business segments is generally the same as described in the "Fundamental Important Matters for the Preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements".

Profit in the reporting segment is based on operating income.

Segment-to-segment sales are based on prevailing market prices.

3. Information on the amount of sales, profits or losses, assets and other items for each reported segment, and information on the breakdown of revenues
